A WORD OF WARNING

CHIEF OF POLICE LAMPERT ADVISES HOUSEWIVES TO LOCK SCREEN DOORS

In discussing the case of the sneak thief who entered the residence of H. D. Goss and took all the money he found on the premises and also took a watch from the home of I. E. Weaver on Kenwood and Harvard streets, posing while prowling around houses on those streets as an employe of the city, Chief of Police Lampert declared that now is the tourist season for the hobo as well as the millionaire, and housewives will do well to keep their premises fairly well guarded by seeing that screen doors are hooked, because the light-fingered sneak thief seldom goes to the length of prying open a door. Also it will be well to closely inspect any man who claims to be a city employe to make sure he is what he represents himself to be.

The chief says complaints have also reached him of a woman who has no license who is going from house to house selling lace. At one place she is said to have persuaded a buyer to purchase for $6 lace that was not worth $2. In his opinion a conservative welcome should be given to all wandering peddlers.

A MOURNFUL HONEYMOON

Mrs. James McBryde reports that her brother, Ensign Frank Mosher, is leaving today for Pensacola to return to service. He has been in Southern California on a holiday furlough with his wife who has been the guest of her father, Dr. Scherer, for several weeks. She will return to Pensacola with him. Her brother, Lieutenant Paul Scherer, was married in Washington, D. C., on Christmas Day. He and his bride left at once for Southern California where he is to be stationed. On the train they developed cases of influenza and on arrival had to be at once taken to a hospital from which they have only just been released, a rather mournful honeymoon.

CHAPTER L. LUNCHEON AND PROGRAM

Chapter L. of the P. E. O. met in regular session at the home of Mrs. C. D. Lusby on North Jackson street on Wednesday where a delicious luncheon was served, the hostess being assisted in receiving and entertaining her guests by Mesdames W. H. Goss, F. H. Dickman and Mrs. Helen Bott. Guests for the day were Mrs. W. H. Nicholson of Chapter A. L., Iowa, who is the guest of Mrs. R. D. Goss, Mrs. Josephine Brant and Mrs. Archie Parker of Chapter B. A., Glendale.

The program of the afternoon was in charge of Mrs. Alma Danford and Mrs. Josephine Bryant. Mrs. Danford gave a delightful talk concerning the library, its work and our book friends, and Mrs. Bryant reviewed the late war books. It was pronounced one of the finest programs of the year and was much enjoyed.

WORKING FOR OTHERS

CENTRAL CHRISTIAN SUNDAY SCHOOL MAKES A FINE ALTRUISTIC SHOWING

A striking feature in the report of the treasurer of one of Glendale's Sunday Schools which in 1917 raised less than $300 for all purposes, was the showing for 1918 of $556 in offerings, $262 of this amount being for the current expenses of the school and $294 "for others,"—home and foreign missions, orphans' and old people's homes, Armenian and Syrian relief funds, etc. Commenting on this, the lady in charge of the sewing work for destitute children in the devastated countries of Europe and Asia, who is secretary of said Sunday Schol and who has been an active worker in Red Cross activities the past two years, said that many mothers and wives and sisters of soldiers in France refused to assist in the work which was providing vitally necessary supplies for their own dear ones, but she hoped they would make a better showing "for others" than for their own. Sewing on these garments is necessary right now and so many are needed that every woman in the city who can possibly spare the time to do so, should drop all unnecessary work and attend to this. Sewing can be done every day at the Red Cross rooms once a week at the various church and societies or at home any or every day.

ACQUIRING MOMENTUM

VOLUNTEERS REGISTER FOR WORK IN BIG DRIVE FOR ARMENIAN RELIEF

The headquarters of the committee in charge of the drive for Armenian Relief at 117 South Brand Boulevard, the furniture establishment of Ezra Parker, was a busy place yesterday afternoon where Mrs. A. A. Barton, Mrs. J. I. Wernette, Mrs. C. W. Houston and her daughter, Dorothy Houston, were preparing literature and pledges to be distributed by Boy Scouts and other workers, that a full knowledge of the cause to which they are asked to subscribe may be had by every resident of our city.

During the day there were calls from citizens who wished to leave money or enroll for service. Among the latter were O. P. Rider, pastor of the Tropico Presbyterian Church, and Rev. R. W. Mottern, pastor of the Glendale Lutheran Church.

To make it clear that the work is patriotic and national in character, a handsome U. S. flag floats in front of the headquarters. Wednesday it was at half-mast as a tribute to Theodore Roosevelt, whose body was committed to the earth on that day, but today it will be at the top of the mast and float for the relief and freedom of the Armenian-Assyrian peoples from the atrocities of Turkish soldiery officered by Huns.

Details in regard to this great international crime show that no such calamitous devastation of a people has ever been recorded by history and it is up to America to do her part in saving the remnant of a wonderful people.

This morning with the ladies of the Federated Parent-Teacher Association under the direction of Mrs. A. A. Barton, and the Boy Scouts distributing it to homes under the supervision of the ministers of the city, the headquarters for Armenian Relief was abuzz with activity.

The extent to which the generous public of Glendale has been informed and aroused to the Armenian tragedy was shown by the fact that before the Scouts had been out an hour delivering their appeals to the people, replies were brought in to headquarters with cash accompanying the subscriptions.

Chairman Ezra Parker expressed his pleasure in the ready response to the call for people to do the work of the drive and in sending in their money, which he attributed largely to the assistance of the Glendale Evening News. Four subscriptions had been made before eleven o'clock this morning and cash amounting to $12 had been received on subscriptions pledging $47.

The Honor Subscription plan has already proved a success. After careful consideration the local committee has decided not to publish the names or amounts of subscriptions but to make public each day the number of subscriptions, the cash paid and the total subscriptions.

The urgency of the need is shown by the information sent out from the New York headquarters of the Relief Committee where a cablegram was received from Herbert Hoover, head of the Inter-Allied Food Administration declaring: "There is probably no greater suffering today than among the persecuted peoples of Asia Minor. This is the predicament of the Armenians and Syrians, who have neither funds nor credit."

"With your financing accomplished," Mr. Hoover's mesage continued, "your committee representing these stricken people can come under the direction of the new inter-Allied world relief-organization and will receive its co-operation in the purchasing and shipment of supplies."

It will thus be seen that the drive is receiving the support and co-operation of the Allied nations of the world.

BIG CHURCH SUPPER

After a two weeks' respite the Wednesday evening church suppers were resumed last evening, at the Central Christian church, with a new committee in charge. Fully 60 were present to partake of the excellent meal prepared, the largest number yet served. The menu consisted of roast beef with gravy and mashed potatoes, bread and butter, salad of watercress, apple sauce, tea and coffee. After the supper, various committees met and transacted the business before them. Then, at 7:30, the prayer meeting was held with the largest attendance in many months. This church night plan with supper at 6, committee meetings following and concluding with the regular prayer meeting, was advocated by the pastor, Clifford Cole, and is proving a most successful feature of the church life.

AMERICAN EMBASSY ATTACKED

TWENTY PERSONS IN THE EMBASSY KILLED IN TODAY'S FIGHTING IN BERLIN, CENTERING IN THAT VICINITY

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Berlin, Jan. 9.—Twenty persons were killed in the American embassy during fighting here today. The embassy building was badly damaged. Today's fighting centered in the square facing the embassy building.

Military Governor Nofske of Berlin has left for Juterberg to get reliable government troops to suppress the revolt.

It is rumored persistently that American troops will occupy Berlin before the national election January 19.

Prince Leopold's palace has been virtually turned into a machine gun fortress by the government troops. Hundreds of soldiers, armed with grenades and otherwise well equipped, are barricaded in the ballroom of the palace. A heavy battle in that vicinity is expected hourly.

The government has regained control of the railways.

(Note.—It was not indicated in the dispatch if the persons killed in the American embassy were Americans.)

BIG MARINE STRIKE IN NEW YORK

ALL SHIPPING TIED UP EXCEPT VESSELS CARRYING WOUNDED AND SICK SOLDIERS TO HOSPITALS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

New York, Jan. 9.—The port of New York was tied up today by a strike this morning of fifteen thousand marine workers. No ferries are running to New Jersey or Staten Island. The tube carried Jerseyites to New York, but Staten Island is entirely isolated. The New Jersey railway terminals are cut off.

It is expected the strike will spread rapidly to other marine workers. A serious fuel and food shortage is threatened.

The only shipping not affected are the vessels carrying the wounded and sick soldiers between the port of embarkation and the hospitals. Returning soldiers faced the prospect of being unable to land from their transports. The ferries carrying soldiers to Camp Merritt closed this morning.

The strike followed the refusal of the employes to accept the award of the War Labor Board, the board having announced yesterday that it was unable to enforce its decisions.

SPARTACUS REVOLT SPREADS IN GERMANY

HUNDREDS ARE KILLED IN UPRISINGS AT DUSSELDORF, MUNICH AND FRANKFORT

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Copenhagen, Jan. 9.—The Spartacus revolt in Berlin has now spread throughout Germany and serious uprisings are in progress in Dusseldorf, Munich and Frankfort. Hundreds were killed in three days of hard fighting at Dusseldorf, where a Bolsheviki republic has been proclaimed. The Spartacus group has called a general strike to start on the date of the national elections, Jan. 19.

Geneva, Switzerland, Jan. 9.—All work has been stopped throughout Germany, according to reports reaching here today.

WASHINGTON WITHOUT INFORMATION

STATE DEPARTMENT SAYS THE DEAD AT AMERICAN EMBASSY IN BERLIN MAY HAVE BEEN AMERICANS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Washington, Jan. 9.—The State Department is without information concerning the death of twenty persons at the American embassy in Berlin. It is regarded as possible that some of those who are dead were Americans and that others may have been Spanish diplomats who have been handling the American interests in Germany.

PRESS CORRESPONDENT WOUNDED

STAFF CORRESPONDENT OF U. P. WIRES FROM BERLIN HE IS TOO BUSY TO GO TO HOSPITAL

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

London, Jan. 9.—John Graudez, staff correspondent of the United Press in Berlin, was wounded in the fighting there today. He wired the London office of the United Press: "I am too busy to go to a hospital yet."

FRENCH PEACE DELEGATES SELECTED

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Paris, Jan. 9.—Premier Clemenceau, Foreign Minister Pinchon, Finance Minister Klotz, Andre Cardieu and Jules Cambon have been selected as the French peace delegates. Marshal Foch will participate in his capacity of inter-allied commander.

A DELIGHTFUL VOYAGE

PASSENGERS ON THE NEWPORT ENTERTAINED LIKE GUESTS AT HOUSE PARTY

Mrs. James Graham, of 200 East Dryden street, recently received a letter from her daughter, Mrs. Samuel Eastman, who sailed on the Newport which left Los Angeles Harbor the 23d day of December. She went to join her husband in New San Salvador where he has gone to establish a branch business for the Channel Commercial Company of Los Angeles with which he has been identified for the past four years.

The letter was mailed from Mazatlan, Lower Mexico, and stated that she and her little son were having a delightful trip neither of them having been the least bit seasick. The dozen lemons she had taken along to ward off the looked-for attack were reposing in their state-room untouched. She said Christmas was a most delightful day on board the steamer. Besides serving a grand Christmas dinner there was a Christmas tree to gladden the hearts of the little passengers of which there were a goodly number, and every child got a toy and a box of candy. Every adult passenger also got a box of candy. She wrote she could travel on a boat like that for six months and not get tired.

Mrs. Eastman is a sister of Frank Littell, of Glendale, who is now in France.

ELIZABETH PARKER SHERER—AN APPRECIATION

I think there must have been great rejoicing in the Garden of Paradise today. I am sure the trees waved their arms in welcome, and the blossoms wept tears of joy when the heralding angel brought the tidings that Elizabeth Parker Sherer had left her fair earthly garden to walk among the trees and flowers of heaven; for I am sure that is where God would place her,—among the growing things—the things which bud and blossom—she loved them so, and tended them with such wondrous care, that in her garden was almost fairy-like beauty, and Lady Elizabeth, as she was lovingly called, is represented in many of the gardens surrounding her home. She was unsparing in her generosity and gave with a lavish hand, of her plants and shrubs,—living monuments of a noble life. Her loving ministrations to those who suffered, covered years—as we reckon time—seeking no reward, save the joy of giving—never so happy as when giving happiness—no sacrifice too great for this great soul. She had no thought which did not bless, purify or heal, and none who sought aid at her door, but left it comforted in body, exalted in soul and soothed in spirit.

We shall sadly miss her shining, but the flowers will bloom more happily in the Garden of Paradise, since she is there.

A. L. WEAVER VERY ILL

M. L. Weaver, of Kenwood street, was summoned to Berkeley Wednesday night by a telegram announcing the serious illness of his son, A. L. Weaver, in the employ of the Hercules Powder Company. He was stricken with influenza last Friday and appeared to be getting along nicely, but complications developed and the telegram stated that he was very low. His mother who accompanied her son Chester when he returned to Mare Island after his holiday furlough, is at the bedside of her sick son.

NOTES OF SEVENTH DAY ADVENTISTS

Professor M. E. Cady from Oakland, Cal., Educational Superintendent of the Pacific Union Conference, is here on a visit to look after the educational interests of the denomination in Southern California. He may go on to Phoenix, Ariz., where the annual conference was scheduled to take place, but was postponed for the third time on account of influenza. There will be a conference of workers, however, but no general meeting. Elder J. W. Christian left Wednesday to attend that gathering, and B. M. Emerson, Secretary-Treasurer and Auditor, left Monday for Phoenix, to do some preliminary work. He and Mr. James Howarth recently returned from St. Helena for the holidays. Mr. Howarth has gone to Riverside to audit the books of the Southeast Conference.

It is probable that the Seventh Day Adventist Church of this city, which closed voluntarily on account of the prevalence of influenza a few weeks ago, will re-open Saturday for the usual services.

Nearly all of the Seventh Day Adventists who have been ill of influenza are now out and no deaths have been reported.

Elder M. N. Hellegas, Secretary of the Young People of the Pacific Union Conference, is visiting churches in the northern part of the state. He has been gone about a week. It is his business to stimulate enthusiasm among young people.

Elder W. F. Martin, formerly the president of the Southeast California Conference, has accepted a position as Secretary of the Religious Liberty Association for the western half of the United States, or all the territory west of the Mississippi River, and will have his headquarters here in Glendale.

Elder J. L. McElheny of Oakland, California, has just accepted the appointment of president of the Southeast California Conference made vacant by the resignation of Elder Martin. He is now at Riverside. For several years he was president of the California Conference with headquarters at Oakland, but the consolidation of the California Conference and the Northwestern Conference has released him for work in the field mentioned.

Elder G. W. Wells, formerly president of the Northwestern California Conference, has taken the position of president of the California Conference in the place of Elder McElheny.

Mr. Donaldson, who was secretary of the Northwestern California Conference with headquarters in Santa Rosa, is now the Secretary-Treasurer of the Inter-Mountain Conference with headquarters at Grand Junction, Colo. This conference includes Utah and western Colorado.

C. E. Kimlin, manager of the Glendale Sanitarium, who has been visiting the Sanitarium at St. Helena for a few days, returned the early part of the week.

Otis J. Fisher, who formerly lived here and who has been secretary of the California Bible House in Oakland, was called to Southern California last week by the death of his father who met with a trolley accident being thrown from the car and his injuries resulting in pneumonia from which he died.

CHURCH SUPPER

A FAREWELL FOR ACTING PASTOR, REV. W. J. MARSH AND WIFE

The annual meeting and church supper at the Glendale Congregational Church when reports for the past twelve months are received and plans are made for the coming year is always an important occasion. This year it was of special importance because it was made a farewell for the acting pastor, Rev. W. J. Marsh, and Mrs. Marsh, who have ministered to the church during the absence of the pastor, E. H. Willisford, in a most satisfactory manner and endeared themselves greatly to the members of the church.

Nearly one hundred persons were present who were seated at large tables placed in the main auditorium and arranged in the form of a cross. A yellow color scheme was carried out in the beautiful floral decorations of French marigolds, and the use of orange fruit cups.

Immediately following the three-course dinner Hartley Shaw, Superintendent of the Sunday School, with a few appropriate words which set forth the high regard in which Rev. and Mrs. Marsh are held by the congregation, presented them with gifts which the church bestowed as a token of appreciation, a beautiful hammered silver bread tray, a glass baking dish in a silver container, and a quart thermos bottle. The recipients were delighted and surprised and Mr. Marsh responded in happy phrase explaining that no gifts were needed to preserve the memory of their pleasant relations with the Glendale Church and its people, but they nevertheless would find it a great pleasure to have such reminders of their work here and the spirit which prompted the gifts.

Annual reports which were then presented showed that all departments of the church are in a highly prosperous condition, that all bills have been met leaving a balance in the treasury, and that the financial outlook for the coming year is most encouraging.

Mr. and Mrs. Marsh will remain to participate in the welcome to Pastor Willisford who is expected to reach Glendale about the first of February, and they will then go to their ranch at Yorba Linda, followed by the warm friendship and good wishes of their many friends in this city.

APT COMPARISONS

Germany in 1914 said we will devastate little Belgium and finally rule the world.

In 1919 the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Company says we will over-ride the rights of the people of Glendale.

Sequel—It took only four years to teach Germany that her beastly desires could not be tolerated by a justice-loving people.

How long will it take to teach the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Company that their swinish proclivities can not be tolerated in a civilized land?

YE HOME FOLKS OF GLENDALE—

WE APOLOGIZE—

NOT FOR A MISDEED DONE--Instead we apologize for a deed which we have left undone.

We have sold you lumber and other building material in the past, and it has ever been our policy to give you the BEST that could be had, and dollar for dollar you received your money's worth.

BUT we haven't taken the interest in your welfare and your needs that we should have taken.

We haven't taken the interest in our own lumber that we should have taken—instead we have oftentimes let you MISUSE IT.

We have sat idly by, and let you waste your money; let you waste our good lumber, in the construction of bleak, ugly, expressionless and crudely designed HOUSES, mistaken for HOMES.

We have seen customers of ours, thinking they were about to realize the fulfillment of their greatest dream, so wonderfully happy and enthusiastic over the prospect of owning their own home.

We have seen these customers let a contract, thinking a pencil sketch of a crude floor plan was the "ideal home of their dreams." AND, as it gradually began to dawn upon them that this "rough sketch" wasn't at all going to be what they thought it was; and, finally, when they looked upon a "shell of boards" instead of their wants, their dreams, "A HOME"—we saw happiness change to DISAPPOINTMENT.

We thought at the time "that it was none of our business," BUT NOW we have just realized that IT WAS SOME OF OUR BUSINESS; it was our lumber that was being misused; it was OUR CUSTOMER that was being mistreated, and it WAS OUR BUSINESS TO STEP IN AND STOP this waste of money and material.

We knew all the time that planning a home was an expert's job

For we have seen the attractiveness of one whole side of a home spoiled by the misplacement of a single window; we knew that the arrangement of the windows in any home was a scientific job, for they must be arranged to admit plenty of light and air, they must also be arranged to add beauty to the home from an exterior and interior standpoint, YET they must also be so arranged that the furniture will fit "on the inside."

We knew also that even "six inches" of space wasted would have paid for an attractive buffet, built-in kitchen cabinet or other convenience. We knew many more things about the science of "home building and home designing" that we haven't the space here to tell you of.

THEREFORE WE FEEL THAT WE ARE TO BLAME FOR MANY OF OUR MISTAKES, AND WE ARE APOLOGIZING FOR OUR DELINQUENCY IN NOT ACQUAINTING YOU WITH THESE FACTS.

NOW, THEN—PLACE YOURSELF IN OUR POSITION. WHAT WOULD YOU DO? THERE IS NOT A MAN AMONG YOU WHO IS MORE INTERESTED IN GLENDALE, her future and her continued prosperity, her community development and her wonderful opportunities than we are, and there are not many of you who believe in Glendale as strongly as we do; therefore, have we not the right to step in; was it not our duty to interfere and prepare to RELIEVE YOU OF YOUR HOME BUILDING TROUBLES AND SAVE WASTE?

There is but one answer—IT WAS OUR DUTY—and here is how well we are prepared to do it:

FIRST: We have equipped our store with a Modern Home Display, where hundreds of actual photographs and floor plans are arranged for your study and selection. Our newly created Service Department will assist you in planning a Home combining the elements of attractiveness, convenience and economy.

When you select the Home you want, your worry ends and our trouble begins, for we will be actively interested until the Home is complete to the front door bell and the Welcome mat—until the key is in your pocket and a look of satisfaction is on your face, and to insure this result, we are going to

BUILD YOUR HOME OURSELVES

We have enlisted the co-operation of the best contractors and builders in Glendale, and the better plumbers, electricians and other tradesmen have endorsed our move.

Our knowledge of building and materials, our financial stability and our reputation in the community combine to insure you of Better Values in Home Building than ever before.

Our Service Department will assist you in securing a lot, in financing your building project, will furnish plans and supervision, all without charge. Bring us your building troubles, whether about a closet shelf, new roof, garage or your home. We want to be known far and wide as GLENDALE'S BUREAU OF BUILDING INFORMATION, and to make the home building slogan of Glendale be:

"LET BENTLEY BUILD IT"
